

Leadership Development Leading a Multi-Generational Workforce

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

Wisdom Worker Solutions will work with your company executives, human resource professionals, administrative officers or other designees who have the responsibility to maintain a productive workforce.

Our experts will assist your organization to enhance or create learning programs and training that will smoothly transfer knowledge learned from experience from one generation of worker to another.

As the workforce ages, Boomers are redefining how they wish to remain or leave the workplace. Simultaneously, employers are actively recruiting Generation X and Y employees to fill openings. Our consultants can offer training opportunities for leaders and managers who want to learn how to productively leverage the talents of multiple generations as they come together in the workplace.

PRODUCT FEATURES

- Employee Development Programs - consider how a variety of knowledge management and transfer programs, such as mentoring, rotation and shadowing, can identify critical organizational and institutional knowledge and effectively transfer this intellectual capital from retiring Baby Boomers to the next generation of employees.

- Leadership and Management Training - enhance your current curriculum with workshops and classroom experiences that will assist leaders and managers in bringing multiple generations together to create productive and profitable work environments.
